

TRANSACTIONAL Pricing Model

Transactional pricing is for companies that have a growing number of users who typically only require one-time access to a course or a form. This pricing model would work well if you have seasonal contract employees who only need to complete an orientation or fill out digital HR paperwork.

Transactional pricing means your company only pays for what is used. For example, if you have 100 people complete an orientation one month and no one completes anything the next month, there would be no cost for the second month.

The best part is if your usage of one area of the system is low, there might be no cost. For example, if you have fewer than 100 students you can use the Classroom Management software for no additional cost.

Software Modules

Each Module has Been Designed in Collaboration with Leading Safety Professionals

Learning Management System

Quickly move your classroom courses online with the online course builder, which includes an exam engine, SCORM compatibility, and an interface that can accept countless media types.

Classroom Calendar

The online Classroom Calendar software can save you time and administrative effort by helping to manage your in-person courses. With the Classroom Calendar, you also won't have to worry about double-booking a classroom, instructor, or overselling a course again.

Digital Forms

Create and complete online forms for incident investigation, site audits, field level hazard assessments, pre-trip inspection, HR documents, and much more. Remote access and offline editing makes form administration seamless.

The image shows a tablet displaying a digital form interface. The form is titled 'Forms' and has a 'Submit' button. It is divided into sections: 'Pending Forms', 'Completed Forms', and a main form area. The main form area has a header: 'Mark your area in the image below. Once done, click Save to save your diagram.' Below this is a large image of a forklift with a red circle highlighting the rear end of the fork. To the right is a smaller version of the same image. Below the images are 'Clear Diagram' and 'Save' buttons. The next section is 'Upload Site Photos' with a 'File Uploader' and a camera icon. Below that is a 'Choose File' button and a note: 'Images must be 4 MB or smaller and in .jpg or .png format.' The 'Inspection Follow Up' section has a header 'Create and assign tasks using the fields below.' It contains a table with columns: 'Task Name', 'Assigned To', 'Due Date', and 'Priority'. The table has one row: 'Have Mechanic Check rear end of fork', 'Jessica Levin', '01-Nov-2019', and 'Medium'. Below the table is a 'Description' field with the text: 'Slight damage noted on forklift diagram. Unclear whether damage will affect performance of the equipment, but it is recommended that a mechanic look into the damage and assess required maintenance.' The 'Auditor Signature' section has a header 'Sign below or upload your signature' and a green box with the text: 'You can drag and drop the image of your electronic signature into the space below or upload one using the Choose File button. Alternatively, you can sign directly in the white space with your mouse (or finger on a mobile device). When you are satisfied, please click Save.' Below this is a white space containing a handwritten signature 'CRAIG BRADLEY'. At the bottom right is a 'Choose File' button and a 'Clear Signature' button.

Digital Folders

Store your digital forms and company policies within the integrated Digital Folders. You can collaborate more efficiently than ever because similar to folders on a desktop, you can upload multiple documents and files into these cloud-based storage folders and give access to anyone on your team. You can use the Digital Folders for HR documents, equipment documents and manuals, all of your digital forms, and more.

Training Record Management

With the BStrainer Training Record Management System, uploading hundreds of employee training records is easy. You can also upload a copy of your employee's certificates along with their records, regardless of the training provider.

Asset Management

The Asset Management software allows you to create profiles for any piece of equipment or asset your company owns. Manage safety forms attached to the assets and keep everything up to date with automated notifications and reporting.
