Simple Set-Up

Start using this valuable tool with the flip of a switch. It is easy to manage and you can access detailed reporting.

- ✔ The Rewards Program provides the perfect platform for ongoing employee recognition. Set up automatic point allocations in seconds by turning it on in your system settings.
- ✔ Schedule reward point events to occur automatically on special milestones, and/or specific dates. These point events will occur on the dates specified until you deactivate them.
- ✔ Full automation is just one part, the system also allows your managers to record points on demand for outstanding work.
- ✔ Once set up, the email notification system and excel reporting system make it easy to manage the rewards across a small, medium, or large organization.

Customize the Rewards

- ✔ The product catalog is fully customizable; add rewards and determine the points required to receive them, all from within the Product Catalogue feature.
- ✔ Employees can redeem their reward points in the Product Catalogue for various gifts and rewards.
- ✔ People can be a company's greatest expense, but also a company's greatest asset. Invest in yours today!
